

The Diocese in Europe Cathedral Statutes 1997

The Cathedral and its role in the Diocese

1 The church of the Holy Trinity in Gibraltar is the cathedral church of the Diocese. It takes this title from the presence in it of the Bishop's cathedra or chair, which is the sign of his office as the guardian and teacher of the Church's faith. Like all churches, the cathedral is a sign of God's presence in his world; a meeting place for the Church of Jesus Christ; and a place of refreshment in the Holy Spirit for all who choose to use it.

2 As cathedral it has these particular duties and opportunities: it is a physical sign of the unity of the people of the Diocese with their Bishop and with one another; it is a place in which the festivals of the Church and important events and anniversaries in the life of the Diocese are celebrated by the Bishop or on his behalf; it is a place of regular prayer for the bishops, clergy and people of the Diocese, and for the communities in which they live.

The Dean and the Cathedral Church Council

3 The office of Dean of Gibraltar shall belong ex officio to the priest appointed and licensed by the Bishop to the cure of souls of the cathedral parish.

4 The dean and the cathedral church council have the duties and powers of an incumbent and parochial church council set out in the law of the Church of England, including the Diocesan Constitution. So far as the circumstances of the parish allow, the dean, the other clergy and ministers, and the officers of the cathedral church seek to serve the Diocese in the ways set out in Article 1.

Pro-cathedrals and their role in the Diocese

5 The size of the Diocese and its history have led to the granting of the status of pro-cathedral to other churches in the Diocese. The role of a pro-cathedral church is to be a regional sign of the unity of the Diocese, and to share, so far as is possible, in the work of the cathedral set out in Article 1.

The Chancellor and Pro-cathedral Church Council

6 The chancellor of a pro-cathedral church shall be the priest licensed by the Bishop to the cure of souls of the pro-cathedral parish.

7 The chancellor and the church council responsible for a pro-cathedral have the duties and powers of an incumbent and parochial church council set out in the law of the Church of England, including the Diocesan Constitution. So far as the circumstances of the parish allow, the chancellor, the other clergy and ministers, and the officers of the pro-cathedral church seek to serve the Diocese in the ways set out in Article 1.

The Cathedral Chapter of the Diocese

8 There shall be a cathedral chapter of the Diocese whose members shall be —

(a) the Bishop;

(b) the dean;

(c) the following canons ex officio:

each person holding the Bishop's commission as a suffragan bishop, vicar general, or archdeacon in the Diocese; the chancellor of each pro-cathedral church;

(d) such persons as the Bishop shall collate as canons under Article 12.

9 The function of the cathedral chapter is to support the Bishop by prayer and counsel.

The prayer of the Cathedral Chapter

10 Each member of the cathedral chapter undertakes to use daily the prayer provided from time to time by the Bishop; to pray regularly for the other members of the cathedral chapter; to observe in some suitable way the feast of the Holy Trinity and the feast of title of each pro-cathedral church.

Meetings of the Cathedral Chapter

11 The cathedral chapter meets when necessary, in Gibraltar or elsewhere, to give counsel to the Bishop and to transact other necessary business. The Bishop or the dean shall convene a meeting of the cathedral chapter at least once in every three years. The chair at meetings of the cathedral chapter shall be taken by the Bishop, or (in his absence or at his request) by the dean.

Canons

12 In addition to the ex officio canons listed in Article 8c the Bishop appoints canons under the following provisions:

- (a) a person, ordained or lay, holding the Bishop's Licence or being on the electoral roll of a congregation in Diocese, may be collated to a canonry and assigned a named stall;
- (b) any other person, ordained or lay, may be collated to an honorary canonry and assigned a named stall;
- (c) if no stall is vacant, the Bishop may, for a serious reason, collate any person, ordained or lay, as an additional canon.

13 Unless the Bishop requests otherwise in writing a canon appointed from the date of these statutes shall vacate the canonry:

- (a) on resigning or retiring from the office in virtue of which it is held;
- (b) on reaching the age of seventy;
- (c) or (in the case of those appointed under Article 12a) on ceasing to hold the Bishop's Licence or to be on the electoral roll of a congregation in the Diocese.

14 Canons may wear such insignia of office as the Bishop may from time to time authorise.

16 Before Installation the dean shall make the following declaration:

I, Name, chosen to be dean of this cathedral church of the Holy Trinity in Gibraltar, do solemnly declare that I will order and govern myself by the statutes of the cathedral chapter of the Diocese of Gibraltar in Europe, and by the customs and regulations of the said church.

20 Every person admitted to a canonry by virtue of office under Article 12a or collated to a canonry under Article 12c shall, on the mandate of the Bishop, be installed or welcomed in the choir of the cathedral or pro-cathedral church, by the dean or the chancellor, as the case may be, or by such other member of the cathedral chapter as the Bishop shall appoint.

Welcoming of members of the Cathedral Chapter in the Cathedral

22 When the Bishop commissions as a suffragan bishop, vicar general or archdeacon, a bishop or priest who is already a member of the cathedral chapter of the Diocese; or confers upon a newly commissioned suffragan bishop, vicar general or archdeacon, a stall in one of the pro-cathedral churches, that person shall, when convenient, be welcomed in the cathedral church of the Holy Trinity, Gibraltar, by the dean.
