Senior Chaplain The Anglican Church in Norway

Velkommen!

The Anglican Chaplaincy in Norway serves people from many nations, ethnic backgrounds and Christian traditions, offering English language Anglican worship throughout the country.

The role of Senior Chaplain offers a fascinating and rewarding opportunity to lead a team of priests and lay ministers in developing and expanding the mission of the Anglican Church in Norway, and nurturing a common life and vision among our growing congregations and building further upon our Porvoo relations.

Based in Oslo as presiding priest, a willingness to travel is essential and an interest to engage in Norwegian culture and language beneficial. Here is an opportunity to exercise your gifts of leadership, liturgical, sacramental and pastoral ministry, preaching and communication, becoming a central part of a wonderfully diverse Chaplaincy, set within the scenic beauty and social awareness that is particular to Norway.

Significant experience of priestly ministry at incumbent level is essential.
