

DIOCESE IN EUROPE

THE CHURCH
OF ENGLAND

CHAPLAIN FOR COPENHAGEN

The Bishop seeks to appoint an experienced priest as Chaplain of St. Alban's Church in Copenhagen and sister congregations in Jutland, Denmark. Beautifully situated in the historic centre of Copenhagen, the church was built in 1887 and draws a large diverse Sunday attendance.

The Chaplain should be an accomplished and prayerful teacher and preacher, outgoing, warm, energetic, open-minded, tolerant and liberal, collaborative and be able to relate easily to the diversity of St. Alban's and its community.

In addition, the Chaplain should:

- be committed to the rich Eucharistic and liturgical life of the congregation
- be both a spiritual and pastoral leader to help us grow in faith
- be a good communicator who can reach the wide variety of nationalities who worship with us
- encourage and nurture people from all walks of life and develop their sense of belonging to a community of faith
- be an active and visible presence in the community, and welcoming to the thousands of visitors who pass through
- motivate and develop a mission-shaped community of faith
- help us develop our outreach to the community at large.

The package includes a full stipend, pension and housing. A car is provided for pastoral visits.

- A driving licence, and a willingness to take Danish lessons are essential.
