

THE ANGLICAN CHURCH IN THE COSTA BRAVA

(From Blanes to the French border)
Where the sun shines most days

The Bishop seeks to appoint a Chaplain (part-time) who will be

- a recently retired, or self-supporting priest to continue the fruitful development that is happening in the Chaplaincy
- Enthusiastic and ready for some hard work on the two designated working days, plus Sundays, to nurture the 4 churches in distinct locations, each of which celebrates the Eucharist monthly
- minister among English speaking people across this pastoral area, harnessing the potential for growth

The package includes attractive accommodation, domestic bills, a car and official working expenses, plus a stipend of €6000 per annum.

For more information or an informal discussion please contact Archdeacon Geoff Johnston on +44 (0) 1773 270972 or +44 (0) 7507 391297 or e-mail: geoff.johnston@europe.anglican.org

Recruitment Pack and Application Form available from the Appointments' Secretary europe.appointments@churchofengland.org

Check out the website www.anglican-cb.org for more details

Closing date for Applications: 28 February 2018

Short listing: 2 March 2018

Interviews: 19 March 2018

There is a commitment to safeguarding children, young people and vulnerable adults.
Safeguarding Policies (vetting and screening) will apply to this post.