

Chaplain - Anglican Church of Luxembourg

www.anglican.lu

The Bishop and parish representatives wish to appoint a high-calibre priest for this rewarding post in the heart of Europe. We are a church that ministers to English-speakers and seeks to make a contribution to Luxembourg society more widely. We seek a priest who will:

- Unite our multi-cultural and multinational congregation behind a fresh vision for our future, developing the mission of the church
- Help us cater for a wide variety of worship preferences around a weekly Eucharist
- Enable church members to relate their faith to their working lives and to wider ethical issues
- Offer sensitive and insightful pastoral care.

We seek a person of prayer, with a strong biblically and theologically based faith and experience as a training incumbent.

The Anglican Church is recognised (and financially supported) by the Luxembourg authorities. The person appointed will need excellent French and the diplomatic skills needed to enhance the church's position in Luxembourg and relate well to ecumenical partners. A minimum stipend of approx. €55,000pa plus generous benefits is offered for this important position.

Further information and application form from:

The Interim Appointments Secretary
Diocese in Europe, 14 Tufton Street, London SW1P 3QZ
E-mail: europe.appointments@churchofengland.org

For an informal conversation please contact:

The Archdeacon of NW Europe
The Venerable Dr Paul Vrolijk
Tel: +32 2 289 09 21
E-Mail: paul.vrolijk@europe.anglican.org

Closing date: 18 September 2017

Short listing date: 20 September 2017

Interview date (in Luxembourg): 2 October 2017

There is a commitment to safeguarding children, young people and vulnerable adults. Safeguarding Policies (vetting and screening) will apply to this post